Facebook: Becoming an Outdoors-Woman Alabama BOW
Becoming an Outdoors-Woman is a three-day workshop designed for women ages 18 years and older. It offers hands-on introductory instruction to outdoor activities in a fun, non-threatening learning environment.

Alabama BOW offers over 40 different classes during each workshop. Regardless of your age, outdoor knowledge or physical capabilities, there is something for you!

Participants select four classes to take during each workshop weekend. Knowledgeable, patient and encouraging instructors create a fun learning environment. The variety of classes offered means you can attend multiple workshops and take different classes each time. You will want to come back again and bring a friend!

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

When is BOW?
The first Friday, Saturday and Sunday of March and October at the 4H Center in Columbiana, Ala.

How can I register?
Registration is online and the link posted on our website and Facebook page. Payment is by credit/debit card. The registration fee includes four classes, all materials for each class, lodging and meals (Friday: dinner; Saturday: three meals; Sunday: breakfast and lunch).

Can I bring my own food?
Yes, but the cost of the registration is the same. You may bring a cooler, and ice is available for a small cost. You can also rent a small fridge for your room to use during the weekend.

What are the lodging arrangements?
Lodging is dormitory style. Each dorm is a two-story building with a sitting area for relaxing or socializing in between classes and activities. Rooms contain two twin-sized bunk beds that sleep four and a private bath. Beds are first-come, first-served. We ask that those who are younger and in good physical condition take a top bunk. During registration you can select up to three roommates. We offer an early dorm for those who wish to have lights out by 10 p.m., and a late dorm for those who stay up a little longer. Dorm preference can be requested during registration. Linens, pillows and towels are provided, but you may bring your own.

Are there other lodging options?
Bunkhouses accommodating up to 14 are available for groups of seven or more. The bunkhouses are served by a centrally located bathhouse. A group of less than seven can lodge in the bunkhouse for a small fee.

Can I camp?
Yes, camping is encouraged. You will still be assigned a dorm room so you have a place to stay if you decide camping is not for you. You can camp one night or both nights. Camping takes place in a large open field close to the lake with a fire pit and nearby bathrooms.

Are there other activities besides my classes?
There are nightly activities, guest speakers, games, a silent auction, a morning squirrel hunt in the fall, a Sunday morning devotional and more. All activities are optional.
