If your CARES Act Round 1 application submitted to MRD was approved and you received an award payment you may be eligible for an additional payment from these funds. You may apply in one of two ways.

1. You may request MRD re-submit your initial Round 1 application without any additional damage assessment. MRD will use the same method for calculating Round 2 disbursements as in Round 1 but the disbursements will be based on the latest number of applicants and total of damages requested. The attached resubmission request form must be completed, notarized, as well as a signed affidavit and self-certification form and returned to AMRD by the deadline.

Payments are made using the economic information and application submitted under Section 12005 of the CARES Act. This supplemental assistance was distributed using the original application and affidavit process from the Section 12005 funding. By accepting this funding from the Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2021, you are attesting that these additional funds do not make you more than whole as defined in your signed original affidavit. Should these funds, or a portion of these funds make you more than whole, funds must be returned to the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission.

2. You may submit a new CARES-2 application and include your damage calculation based on the longer time period for eligible losses.

Total payments of any assistance may not total more than 100% of your damage determination or your average annual revenue from the previous 5-year period.
